A Magnificent Chateau with Spectacular Views of the Pyrenees & Historic City of Pau

€ 2.400,000 fai

FCH554

A Magnificent Chateau set in the heart of the Jurançon wine-producing region, offering spectacular views over the historic city of Pau and the Pyrenean mountain range. The Chateau has been recently renovated to include a new roof and is offered for sale fully furnished (minus personnel effects). The accommodation is beautifully light and spacious. The grand entrance hall, dominated by an impressive staircase and open fireplace, leads through to several reception rooms, including the grand salon, dining hall with a beautiful glass domed conservatory, family salon, two studies and a billiards room. The first floor has an independent one bedroom apartment, as well as a further two en-suite bedrooms plus a library. The second floor has been configured to receive several families and includes four further bedrooms plus an independent two bedrooms apartment. The Tower accommodates the games room and accesses the roof terrace from which there are beautiful views of the Pyrenees mountain range. Guardian living quarters and an industrial sized kitchen are provided in the basement. There is a lift in-situ accessing each floor of the chateau.

The gardens surrounding the property are beautifully landscaped and immaculately maintained. Steps lead down from the entrance to a very attractive 14x6m heated swimming pool. 10 hectares of land, which is predominately woodland.

Situated only 10 minutes from the restaurants and boutiques in the centre of the historic city of Pau and yet with the tranquility and privacy of the countryside, this property has the best of both worlds.

This is a very spacious chateau has a wonderful dominant position and benefits from views of the Pyrenees mountains and the historic city of Pau, which is beautifully lit at night on the horizon. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the location and presentation of this property. Sold Furnished.
