

Petit Chateau, Period Barns, Swimming Pool, Tennis Court and 4 hectares

€ 477,000 fai

FCH544

This delightful 'Petit Chateau' and its 4ha of surrounding grounds can be found on the southern fringes of the vast Landes Forest. Located in a quiet and peaceful spot but not isolated this is certainly a home for nature lovers. The park contains many ancient and impressive trees including Oaks and Plains, a meandering woodland stream and a charming stone covered water source.

The property was built during the 19TH century and has been meticulously maintained by the present owner for the past 40 years. The accommodation is spread over 265m<sup>2</sup> on 2 floors. The entrance hall, kitchen, dining room, study and spacious sitting room with its fine stone fireplace are on the ground floor with 4 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, both en-suite, on the first floor.

The terrace and pool area is can be approached via the sitting room through 3 large glazed double doors. Positioned to the south of the house it is the perfect 'sun trap'. An attractive timber framed Pool House with a fully equipped kitchen, separate dining area, Bar are to be found a step away from the pool along with a studio room and a spa. The large Pool of 12m x 6m is tile lined with its pump and filter system hidden out of sight in the large cellar of the house.

The beautifully maintained gardens and park are spread over 4ha and include decorative borders, shrubberies, centenarian trees and a hard tennis court. The period barns are presently being used as a work shop and storage and offer the potential to be converted into a Gite or simply additional living space.
