This elegant Empire-style stone property, offering approximately 400m² of living space, is nestled in one of the most sought-after valleys of the Pyrenean mountains, just 30 minutes south of the beautiful and historic city of Pau.

A sweeping stone staircase leads to the grand entrance hall, which opens into a charming, light-filled sitting room featuring a marble fireplace and picturesque views over the garden to the south and west. Opposite, the spacious drawing room, also with a marble fireplace, connects to the kitchen. The dining room, located along the eastern side of the house, enjoys dual-aspect windows facing south and features a working fireplace. The reception rooms all boast stunning parquet floors. The kitchen and adjoining scullery, totaling 23m², would benefit from some modernisation and provide access to the rear of the house via a stone staircase.

A graceful wooden staircase leads to the first floor, where five generously sized bedrooms each include a washbasin and bidet. Every room also features a marble fireplace, and the linen room provides access to a beautiful balcony overlooking the grounds.

The staircase continues to the vast attic space of approximately 120m², comprising three former bedrooms under the eaves and two large storage rooms.

On the lower ground floor, the basement spans 150m² and is divided into five rooms, including a large wood store, a wine cellar, a boiler room, and two additional storage rooms.

Surrounded by lovely gardens filled with mature trees and shrubs, the property also includes a large adjoining field with separate access to a small lane behind the house, bringing the total land area to just under one hectare (over two acres). A gated entrance leads to a double garage at the rear.

Located on the edge of a picturesque village with essential amenities—including a bakery, butcher, café, and supermarket—the property enjoys an idyllic setting. Scenic walking trails lead from the house into the surrounding hills and mountains, with a gentle stroll bringing you to a riverside path. The ski stations and the Spanish border are just 30 minutes away, while the motorway and airports of Pau and Lourdes/Tarbes are within a 40-minute drive. The beaches of Biarritz and the Atlantic coast can be reached in just a couple of hours.
